

Hunting Hall's Taste of North Northumberland

Northumberland has some wonderful food producers . Here are a few suggestions to help you find the best fresh, local, organic or Fair-trade products.

Alnwick Farmers' Market

takes place on the last Friday of each month in the Market Place 9 am—2 pm.

Morpeth Farmers' Market

takes place on the first Saturday of each month in the Market Place 9 am—3 pm.

At local farmers' markets you can buy some of the finest Northumbrian and Scottish produce: speciality breads, pork, beef, lamb, cheeses, fish, local fruits and vegetables, plants, jams and chutneys, biscuits, pies, fudge, pâté, ginger wine and local arts and crafts.

Hunting Hall Pork

At Hunting Hall we have a small herd of rare breed pigs. These lovely old traditional farmyard breeds are very slow to mature – but the wait is worth it. The pork is rich, juicy and flavoursome with scrumptious old-fashioned crackling. We don't sell meat on the farm but you can often buy Hunting Hall pork, sausages and bacon at T.R. Johnson, Butcher, on Wooler High Street.

Hunting Hall's Organic Lamb

A little further afield, George Payne of Brunton Park, Gosforth, sells Hunting Hall's organic lamb. We were very proud when George Payne's lamb cutlets with mint (made from Hunting Hall lamb) won a gold in the Butchers' Q Guild Smithfield Awards.

The Great Northumberland Bread Company

is based at Letham Hill, Etal. Bread, free from preservatives and additives, is baked in a unique wood fired oven, which is fuelled using slabwood from the Ford and Etal Estate.

Doddington Dairy

This local award-winning dairy produces the most wonderful ice cream and farmhouse cheeses with local names such as Berwick Edge and Cuddy's Cave. You can buy cheese and ice cream from The Doddington Dairy Milk Bar & Cafe, Wooler

Border Fields Cold Pressed Rapeseed Oil

This natural oil is produced by a small group of farmers based in Northumberland and the Scottish Borders. The seed is cold pressed, filtered and bottled without using heat or chemicals at any stage of the production. This results in a simple product full of natural goodness. You may find it in your own Tescos!

Hetton Law Brewery

Based on a nearby farm this micro-brewery produces hand crafted beers using pure local spring water which gives them their distinctive character. Hunting Hall pigs love a brewing day as they are fed the waste soaked grains. Look out for Hetton Howler, Hetton Hair Raiser and Hetton Harvest at pubs in the area.

Chain Bridge Honey

This local apiary and visitor's centre makes all sorts of produce containing honey: honey mustard, soaps, ointments and cosmetics, candles and (of course) various types of delicious honey. Visit the Chain Bridge honey farm or buy their produce from Berwick Garden Centre; The Green Shop, Berwick; The Good Life Shop, Wooler.

Lindisfarne Mead

This fortified wine is made on the Holy Island of Lindisfarne. Mead is made with honey which in the time of the Priory, would have come from Beal (Bee Hill) but today is imported from all over the world. Various fruit wines and preserves are also sold at the winery showroom in the centre of the village.

Lindisfarne Oysters

Lindisfarne Oyster Farm lies on the site of the oyster beds established by the monks of Lindisfarne Priory. The pacific oysters are available from Ross Farm near Belford.

Swallow Fish

This family business still uses the last fully operational 19th Century Smokehouse in Seahouses. The shop on the premises 'The Fisherman's Kitchen' offers a wide variety of locally caught shell fish, fresh fish and Swallow's own kippers.

Carroll's Heritage Potatoes

At Tiptoe Farm in the River Till Valley they grow over 17 varieties of Heritage Potatoes. Each variety is chosen for its gourmet eating qualities - excellent flavours, textures, colours, shapes and a taste of history.

You can buy Carroll's Heritage Potatoes from Berwick Garden Centre.

Oxford farm Shop

Here you can pick-your-own strawberries in the summer and they also offer a selection of local produce.

The Green Shop,

Bridge Street, Berwick upon Tweed

This shop offers a large selection of fair-trade and organic foods including fresh meat, fresh fruit and vegetables, chilled milk, vegan and vegetarian foods, beers wines and sprits, cheeses and butter, frozen fruit, seeds and yoghurts. It's a wonderful friendly place to shop!

Sunnyhills Farm Shop

This local farm shop at Belford has a gift shop, a deli serving hot and cold food, and sells fresh pies, bread baked daily, fresh meats and a great selection of everyday foods. The bistro serves home cooked lunches, freshly baked cakes and also opens Thursday, Friday & Saturday for evening meals.

The Good Life Shop

Wooler High Street

A lovely small local shop offering local cheeses and a delicatessen.
